

Vincent Saint Bellomo

April 4, 1931 - December 29, 2024

Vincent S. Bellomo, born April 4, 1931, died December 29, 2024, at age 93. Cherished husband of Patricia for 22 years. Father to Christopher Bellomo (Ramona) and Angel Bellomo (David). He was predeceased in death by his son, Michael. Proud grandfather of Maria (Frank) Lucido, Christina Bellomo (Tony), and Michael Angelo Johnson. Great-grandfather to Valentina Lucido. Dearest son of the late Carmen and Angelina Bellomo. Brother to Violet (the late Joe) May and Linda (the late Fred) Walny.

After attending St Anthony School in Detroit, Vince served as a paratrooper in the 82nd Airborne. He then worked for Chrysler. Sports were a big part of Vince's life, and he played softball well into his later years.

Vince was well known in the Italian Community. He loved good food and frequented Italian restaurants, steakhouses, and sports bars. Vince liked winter in Mexico, springtime in Florida, and summers up north with his family. Fall was football. And there was always Vegas.

Family was everything to Vince. He hosted elaborate Christmas parties and family dinners. July 4th called for a pig roast and a day on the lake. Vince had an incredible zest for life and never stopped smiling. He will be dearly missed.

“ Vince was always great to see when I was younger. Vince and my dad frank scarcella would always argue as to who had the better hair. Vince loved his family this much I know. I just found out about Vince's passing last night. My husband and I would have come to the funeral home yesterday but unfortunately we didn't know. I know when my husband Bob and I were Married in 1984 Vince came and had a table just for his immediate family. We loved his mom Aunt Angie and know they are All together. I tried sending flowers but it was too late. We are very sorry for your loss.
