“ My first job was in 1984 at both DiMaggio's stores. This family left a great impression on me. I always heard Vince's loud laughing in the aisles at the Green Street store. I never saw him in a bad mood. I am grateful to have worked with him and I was shocked to hear of his passing. My condolences and utmost respect to the family. Matthew Conforti.

“ Sam and I were very sad to hear about Vince. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time. We have very funny memories with Vince while working with him at Dimaggio's. What ever happened to the book that he was going to write about all the funny things that went on at the store. We have made his book a couple of times.

“ I worked with Vince for a short time at John Carlo and I have to say that he was one of my most favorite memories there. Vince always made me smile. He has such a great sense of humor and was great to talk with. He is greatly missed and will hold a special place in so many peoples hearts. God bless to his wife and son. He always was so proud and grateful to have you two. Susan

“ To Vince's Family: I was very saddened to read of Vince's passing. I grew up with him, our backyards connected kitty-corner, until we moved in 1966. All the neighborhood kids went to the same grade school Princeton Elementary and then St. Isaac Jogues, and Vince was always a part of our "group". My two borthers and I have many wonderful memories of playing "cowboys and indians" and other children's games with Vince, and the rest of the neighborhood. We will keep him, and you, in our prayers.

“Vince was truly treasured by the music ministry at St. Isidore's and by me. I didn't interact with him on a regular basis but always looked forward to seeing his wonderful face and energy. I cherish the moments of praise and joy, participating in celebrations together. He will be missed but I know he is now in place of complete freedom and joy. Love, Mary

“Ilene and Kyle- Vince was always upbeat-he was a great warrior and truly a gentle man. He fought the brave fight. I will miss "Bicencenzo" my private nickname for him a lot. Let me know how I can help.
