“ Suzanne and family: I recall one of the many conversations I had with your mother at a shower for you. She mentioned that she was driving and not paying attention and was stopped by the police for going 5 or 10 miles over the limit and received her first traffic ticket. I told her she should explain that she never received a ticket before and they would probably remove it from her record. Her answer was that it would not be right and the police may have saved her from an accident. That is the character of your mother. She always did the right thing no matter what. Our prayers are with you and your family at this time. We love and respect our extended relationship and hope it continues. Please know that you and Pat are dear to me and will never be forgotten. Paul and I will be attending the funeral.
