She was a wife of noble character, Proverbs 31 10:31, a talented stained glass artist, cake decorator and candy maker. She was a volunteer at St. Mary's of Royal Oak's "Clothes Closet" for several years and served in sacristy duty.

She had a wonderful sense of humor- all the days of her life.

She loved to travel with Don, be near the water, to listen to music, dance, fish, and garden.

Mostly, she loved spending time with her family, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren who will all miss her terribly.

She loved life and the Lord. May she rest, pain free in the arms of our Lord.
