“ Such a beautiful lady, always smiling! She definitely loved the Detroit Red Wings and would watch them on tv getting so excited when they scored. She always welcomed everyone into her home and I have very fond memories of sharing the holidays with her and the Zajdel family. She was my birthday buddy since our December birthdays were only two days apart. She always called herself and I the Outlaws. I will miss her very much. R.I.P. dear sweet Aunt Virgie! I know you are at peace with the Lord!

I've known Virginia for almost 50 years. What a very kind, funny, and enjoyable lady. I am so glad I got to visit with her just last week and share a few laughs. She'll live on through the wonderful memories everyone will have of her. I'll always remember her with a smile !
