“Members of the Warren Theatre Guild fondly remember Jerry as a talented director and actor who brought to life many of our best productions. He challenged each of us but always found time to laugh and party. God bless.

“Jerry and I were classmates at Northwestern in 1941 until he transferred to Syracuse ? I still remember his 3734 Yorkshire Dr address. I remember his Rek O Kut recorder--I still have a record he cut of me "doing Hamlet" and his of The Cask of Amontillado. Also his FM radio and his bass reflex speakers. For formal occasions he wore a bow tie. I did visit when he lost his wife several years ago and I regret that we sort of lost contact. He will remain one of my happy memories. WVL Farmington Hills

“Jerry was a bright spot in my very early start as a director of Community Theatre. He was a joy to work with and taught me a lot. What I remember most is the enjoyment he got out of the process and his smile and laugh. Peace to him and his loved ones.

“ Hello: I remember Jerry for his acting abilities and being a director for one of our plays with Troy Players. I remember his role in "Music Man" and the fun we had. I remember his hearty laugh, ---everyone really liked Jerry. He's probably having a great time in heaven with the Lord.

“ So sorry about the loss of Jerry. I worked with him in community theatre productions and made a point to see any shows he performed in. Jerry was one of the most accomplished and talented actors in the area. Also a very fine gentleman who will be missed by many. May he rest in peace. Blessings to you all.
