

Walter Ament

May 14, 1941 - November 12, 2024

Walter Niels Ament, age 83, of Troy, passed away on November 12, 2024. He was born on May 14, 1941 to Leroy and Anna Ament.

Walt originally began his professional life as a teacher. But after two years, he found that wasn't his calling and soon began a long career in the automotive industry. His first stop was at Chrysler, but he ultimately ended up spending nineteen years with Ford as a plant layout engineer. In his free time over the years, Walt enjoyed woodworking and especially RV'ing. Upon his retirement from Ford, Walt purchased a Class A motorhome that he and Linda took on many trips. Lots of these trips were to different parts of Michigan, but he and Linda also managed an epic cross-country trip that brought them back to Michigan along the iconic Route 66. Walt was also a longtime Dream Cruise enthusiast who attended over twenty of the annual events since its inception. It's fair to say that he absolutely loved to reminisce about his days cruising Woodward back in his teens and twenties.

Walt will be remembered as the beloved husband of the late Linda, and the loving father of Lisa Ament, Mark Ament, and David Ament.

Visitation for Walt will be held on Saturday, November 16, from 1 p.m. until time of service, 4 p.m., at Wm. Sullivan & Son Funeral, 705 W. Eleven Mile Rd. (four blocks east of Woodward), Royal Oak. Entombment will take place on Monday, November 18 at 1 p.m. at Oakview Cemetery in Royal Oak.

If you would like to make a memorial contribution in honor of Walt, please consider the American Cancer Society.

“ We remember Walt and Linda for dining out and then attending Stagecrafter plays at the Baldwin Theater in downtown Royal Oak. Walt's response to the shows always made for an interesting evening.

“ Walt was the Pied Piper of dog treats to any dog in our neighborhood & my dog Louie was a primary beneficiary countless times. Walt would personally deliver them directly to our door & when the doorbell rang Louie barked & knew Walt was here. Walt was a sweet man & had a heart for animals especially dogs. Walt also had a heart for his 3 children & we prayed for them regularly. Walt enjoyed his freedom & loved to roaming our neighborhood with treats in his pocket hoping to see anyone walking their dog. Louie passed away yesterday & who knows, Walt may already see him & their reminiscing the good old days in Buckingham Woods.
