“ Uncle Wally, When I think of you, you make me smile. You were such a kind, generous, and heart-felt person. I always remember your dogs and how scared I was of them when I was little. After I got older, I loved running back and forth with them in your very large backyard. As an adult, I always looked forward to seeing you on New Year's Day and chili and pies made by Aunt Esther. You used to laugh so much when you told me stories about growing up, especially about your sister, my mother, Emily. Then books of pictures came out and I had such a great time. You will always be in my heart and memories. Good bye, for now, Uncle Wally. You really made a difference in this world. See you in Heaven. With all my love,

“ Dad,Dad,Dad your finally back home in the arms of Mom. Back on the ballfield with Marty,Hank and Max while being cheered on by Wanda&Delores with Emily still in the stands. You where the Dopierala family. I remember moving to Avon Twp in 1954 where you would spend the next 57yrs remodeling and repairing the Doral home on John R. Frances DoralMomleaves us suddenly in May of 1974 and you are devastated and lost. Your new life begins in 1976 with the marriage to Esther and things change. You no longer have time for us and your 8 grandchildren. You missed that Dad and I think you would have been very proud of how they turned out. That's probably my only disappointment in you. We had our disagreements but seemed to get over them in time. 2 hardheaded Pollacks is not a pretty site. It was a tough 4wks and I prayed for a different outcome but you told me you were ready to leave and go home again. I will miss you and love you,till we meet again. Ricky

“ Grandpa was a man; ½s man. Called it as he saw it. Very generous in is his opinion and his nature. He was genuine, proud of his family, his career and retirement and accomplishments. I very much enjoyed his company, conversation, and profound wisdom. Sharing a chocolate bar with him just recently will add to many fond memories. He will be greatly missed.

“ He will be greatly missed by both of his families. His first wife, Frances, passed away in 1974, he later met and married my great-grandmother Esther. They had a loving relationship until his death, as he had with Frances. They always joked and kept each other busy. In 2009, I had interviewed him about his service in WWII for a school project. He was able to recall many details even though it was over 60 years had passed. After, I felt he had a special bond , and he was glad someone was interesting and wanted to know about his young adulthood. I am very glad I was able to learn about him. Everyone will miss him.

“Dad was a very unassuming individual who left his military background on Guadalcanal. His life was devoted to teaching and watching with Mom Bob and Rick's baseball games, watching with Mom my baton twirling endeavors, and rocking out with Bill's band experiences. Dad was a true Mr Fix-It Man who thought nothing of tearing apart a room and remodeling it by himself. I will always remember that slight little smile he had when my brothers were kidding him in the hospital and the squeezing of my hand when he was unable to speak. Now he is at peace in a place he wants to be - Mom and Dad are together again. BTW at 90 Dad knew my last name was DODSON.
