“ Jeffrey, Joseph and David, I am so very sorry for your loss. The world will be not be as bright without your beautiful mom she loved you unconditionally.

Your mom and I shared a friendship that went far beyond the norm. We laughed together, cried together had deep conversations together, traveled together and even lived together. Your mom supported me during the lows and celebrated with me in times of joy. My heart is breaking, but I will always have the wonderful memories of our times together. God Bless. Kathy Thomas

“ Over the years I had met Mrs. Jaye on several occasion's She was a good listener and always had a kind word for others. She genuinely seemed to care about other people in our Society and doing the right thing. Clearly these are some of the reasons why her Son's were so successful in Life. Clearly she will be missed.
