“ I wanted a perfect ending. Now I've learned, the hard way, that some poems don't rhyme, and some stories don't have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Life is about not knowing, having to change, taking the moment and making the best of it, without knowing what's going to happen next. One thing I do know is you played such important part in everyone's lives that you will be missed everyday. You were the glue of the family. You have left such impression on all of us. We love you and miss you Grandma.....

“ Gone is a mother loved by all, Her soul is now at rest. She'll sleep in peace her work is done. A mother's work-the best. She'll know the joy of perfect rest In heaven up above, Where she may dwell contentedly Protected by God's love. Our hearts may grieve that she must lie beneath the sacred sod, And yet we know she lives in peace Within the house of God. We hope in some small way that our prayers and thoughts are with the family will help them endure this great lost. Love, Sally & John Lockhart
