“ Warren John DeCook will always be in my soul. He was my Father. My Dad taught me patience and what Love really is. He also taught how important a positive attitude is. My Sister Dawn and had to do multiplication and division, with flashcards and second and third grade. He made sure we were strong in math skills. When I have to make a decision on something that's important I will always say to myself. What would my Dad do. I know he is in my Soul.

“ I met Warren when I started working in the office he shared back in 1990. I always admired how when a client showed up unexpectedly, Warren dropped the pencil and ran to greet them, listened to their concerns and sent them off with that big smile. He made you feel that you were important to him. He had an excitement for life. We always wished each other happy birthday as we shared the Virgo sign. Also remember how he always brought "Susie" to work, wing-ding lunches, cocoanut shrimp, his love of chocolate, love of the Lions, Fuddruckers for lunch, Outback for dinner, and the annual trips to Las Vegas the day after tax season. He was a wonderful man that will never be forgotten. I'm sure he's up there with his wonderful wife Barb and fellow CPA Jim Neumaier having a ball!
