“ Wendy and I met in our early 20's BEFORE COMPUTERS in a branch office of a big insurance company in Southfield, MI. I had just moved from MA to MI as a newlywed. We instantly connected as we sat next to each other typing away on IBM selectric typewriters-the ones with the ball with all the letters on it! When we went "shopping/bopping" as she would call it, on Saturdays, we were often asked if we were sisters. I loved that since I never had a sister. We Wendy & Liz had lots of fun in San Francisco after I transferred there from Detroit and then, the Boston area after I started a family and moved back East. I just visited MI & spent some precious time with her the first week of October. Her happiest and most content years were spent with Wayne. She will live in my heart and soul forever. When I think of her, I will always smile and be thankful I knew her. Love ya and miss ya Dahlin'! You were one very special lady. "Auntie" Chris

“ Wendy and I worked together, we were business associates and more importantly friends. Wendy had a beautiful insight into life, she was smart and had a wonderful personality. I will miss our breakfasts at IHOP'S and lunches at Hogan's. Wendy will be missed but not forgotten. Helene and I extend out condolences to Wayne and family.
