“ I also remember Wesley from Calvary Baptist Church when we were young. I also went to Ferndale High School with him. I conguer with the gentleman that described Wes and Virgil. They made church and Sunday school very fun at an age where most young people are getting involved in "all the wrong things". Wes contributed to a positive atmosphere and helped young people seek a better way to live as a result. What a guy what a guy ! If you need something Steph, please call and leave a message or shoot an e-mail if you think I can help.

“ Dear Stephanie, Madison, & Zane It is so evident that Wes was loved by everyone of every age.I liked him instantly the first time we met.God's plan is not always something we understand and is often hard to accept. Wes was a Christian man and lived life to the fullest. He touched many lives in many ways. Madison & Zane, you will take your Dad's character far in your lives. “ I am sorry for your loss Stephanie, Madison, Zane and family. I'm going to miss Wesley's handshake...I always tried squeezing harder, but never could as well as his contagious laugh and humor. He is just one of those people that you just smile when you think about...that says so much about the man Wesley was.

“ To Our Atwood Family, We send our love and prayers to each and everyone of you. What great joy we have had being included in family events. Fond memories of Wesley - like Wes & I running across Larry's lawn after his graduation party, holding the tent down, and then falling in the grass and laughing at each other! How happy Wes was on his wedding day and how proud and excited he was to have a daughter and son. To watch the family grow and share in the Christmas events, camp fires, and all the crazy Atwood fun - those memories of Wes will be cherished. His laughter and outlook were the best! We share in your sadness as he will be missed. Wesley was an amazing person with lots of talent. We are blessed to have known him. May the Lord give you strength, comfort, and peace in the days to come.

“ Dearest Zane and family, There are no words to express my sorrow for you young man. I just know that you always talked about your dad with pride and loved him so much. Everything in life has a purpose, Zane. That may be hard for you to understand at this time of your life. As time goes on and my memory fades into the background, always remember this, "Whatever in life doesn't get you down---can only makes you stronger". Hang in there buddy. “ Dearest Stephanie, We remember when Wesley invited you to his graduation party. Dad said NO because your friend backed out and we didn't want you to drive to Troy Uncle Bill & Aunt Kathy's house alone. You had a fit, so, Dad said O.K. When you came home that night, you said "He's not my type, but, he is so funny and he made me laugh all night". He invited you to go shoot pool the following weekend and you said O.K. The rest is history. Everyone that has met him has been touched by his personality and jolly demeanor, but, we were blessed to call him family. We will miss his smartass remarks and he will always be in our hearts.

“ I was one of the leaders on Wes' Sr. Trip with Calvary to Myrtle Beach. I will never forget on a beautiful sunny day trying to talk him into heading to the pool with us - he was laying on his bed watching cartoons. He was watching Tom & Jerry. The cat was walking across the yard and you could tell he was going to step on a rake and have the handle hit him in the face. Wes laughed so hard like he never saw it coming! Being happy and jolly was just Wes being Wes. I had the chance to chat with him online a month or so ago and enjoyed hearing about his children. I am sorry for those who are left here without Wes and will pray for his family, but can't help but be excited that he is healthy and walking the streets of heaven with his Lord, I'm sure laughing all the way! Thank God for allowing me to have Wes in my life.

“ As Vigil's little brother, Wes was introduced to me @ a young age. Virgil @ Wes were in-separable! They were "brothers from another mother". Of all my brother's friends, Wes was the one I felt most comfortable around due to his jolly nature. Through Wes I met James and the same can be said of us. When we walk into church people approach us and claim that we are a splitting image of Virgil @ Wesley. Thank You Wes for giving me my "right arm", your brother!

“ Wes and Virgil hung around together. Inside all the church functions and outside of church. I was a second mom to wes. He always called me mom. They were always up to something. Wes was the most kind, giving , thoughtful, sweet and loving person I ever knew. I can't imagine a world without him. He will be so very much missed. I have no doubt in my mind that He is there right now with His Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We will see you soon Wes. You will always be in our hearts and our minds. We love you so very much!!

“ Our Dearest Wesley, You were our first born son. You brought joy and happiness into our lives. Your first walk was when you came home from the hospital, with aunt Shirley and Me. We have been tough on you, but it has made you the man you are today and will always be. You have been the greatest son ever. Even with all the trips to the hospital. I have always loved the summers of being the "cool aid mom" on East Oakridge. The joys of going on field trips with you; seeing your awesome drawings. The laughter, smiles, giggles and tears. The joy of your wedding and most of all, the gift of life of our grandchildren Madison and Zane. Both you and Stephanie have given us the best gift ever! I'm still waiting for your sister and Richie to do their part now. Just remember one thing, that your dad and I will never forget you. With all our love forever! Please Wesley, R.I.P, hugs and kisses forever. Love Mom and Dad
