“*Mrs. White and family please accept my deepest sympathy. We consider the Whites family.
Mr. White is and always will be in my thoughts. He took an interest in me. I have gone on to make a career in construction from fundamentals he taught me as a young man. I loved his passion for building, and it rubbed off on me.
I will always cherish memories with Mr. White from driving to LA, gardening, or asking him what was cooking in the frying pan.
Awesome man that I will never forget and love.
Love to the White family.*
