“ Bill had a quirky sense of humor. He always had some tacky plastic Christmas decorations displayed in his cubicle at work. When I asked him why he still had decorations up well after the holiday, he replied "because it's Christmas in here every day!" He will be fondly remembered and very much missed. Cheryl

“ We worked with Bill for many years and always found him to be brilliant, intelligent, innovative, and a very valuable and reliable member of our team. He made significant contributions to the success of the department and General Motors and always so helpful to everyone. He was one of the best!! We are very sorry for your loss. Our hearts and prayers are with Bill and his family.

“ I rarely know what to say when I hear such horrible news. Please know that my heart goes out to you. The great times, storys, and best of all. All the jokes we played on peple at work. You and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers. Bye my old friend. Your Homie, Bob
