“ From day 1 we were brothers, that baseball field will forever keep us together. I hit my first home run on you brother, I'm hitting my first collegiate for you. I love you so much, missing you a lot, keep looking at the scar on my hand when we burned ourselves to show we were brothers. You always had my back and I had yours. we went through so much and hell I just talked to you. a whole was put in my heart when you left us will, but you're gone not forgotten. Love you brother. stop by time to time and watch a few games.

“ Derrick, Will was a great kid. He was one of Dominick's best friends for many years. He was always so very polite when he spent the night at our house and always had a smile on his face. I truly hope he is at peace now. Prayers for you and your family.

“ Will was a wonderful young man. His smile could brighten up the most dingy of bowling alley's. I enjoyed watching him over the years, and I loved fussing over him and making sure he would eat while we were at tournaments. My heart goes out to Derrick and Gina, I am truly sorry for the loss.
