“ Sorry for this belated notice: I know you had some disappointment in life but you always managed a smile and kept a circle of friends close to your heart. If you were the Bill that gave me a surprise birthday party in July, my birthday was in Dec. on E. Grand Blvd in Detroit, I'm eternally grateful and humbled by your generous spirit. So long ago, but many happy memories of Bloody Mary Sundays. Handicapped by youth and ambitions, our destinies took separate paths. Rest in peace my friend - from circa late fifties early sixties. don fisher 9/9/2015

“ My Dearest Bill: For 43 years we have shared our tears, our laughter - just about everything I can think of. One cannot but notice the emptiness in our hearts your passing has caused. But we knew there was nothing we could do - we had to wait. And now you are with your dear friends Alan and Robert along with your family which you held close to your heart. My dearest friend, I offer up the tears I have shed and the prayers I have said to your memory which will live on in my heart until we meet again. Mere words alone cannot express my feelings at having known you, and Chris feels the same way. You shall remain alive as long as we walk upon this earth, and the memory of you shall be cherished with great love and affection. Sleep on in love, my dearest, sleep on. Ray and Chris
