“ It has been a long time. My parents saved yearbooks from Wiley and Eppler for me, and a browse through those with my young children just now had me share a few memories of Billy. Always smiling, always positive... always. A good example of how to be. I am glad to have known you Billy. You will be remembered.

I remember our days together at Wiley, Billy was one of my first classmates, he was sweet, kind and funny, a good friend to us all, I will always remember him another beautiful heart and soul, gone too soon...

“ If you want to know what faith looks like, just look at the life of Billy Compton. No matter the struggle or how much pain he was in, Billy knew what God had waiting for him on the other side. He found strength in knowing that fact. Billy was a friend for life when the friendship began. He prayed for all of his friends. I know as soon as he seen the face of Jesus, Jesus said 'you have done well my good and faithful servant'. Billy, though it hurts your not here with us on earth, we know without a shadow of a doubt we will see you again someday. RIP my friend.

“ Billy always had a smile on his face and a positive attitude. He made everyone smile and want to include him in everything. Rest easy Billy, you've earned your place in heaven.

Awww....Billy, We knew you as a boy , always grinning and friendly to all. We knew you as a young man and an adult. You were an angel long before now.....why?, because you made people smile, you befriended all and you already knew God's eye was on the sparrow and you. Love.

“ My first memories of Billy are from the halls of Eppler Jr. High. I remember seeing nothing but smiles on that kid as he made his way through the crowds. His attitude was always positive and I do not recall him ever showing anger or frustration. That spirit remained all through High School as well. Thanks for the smiles Bill and thanks for your courage and fight. Rest easy old friend.

“ Growing up with Bill when we were kids, neighbors just doors down the street, he always made me laugh and had such an incredible sense of humor. He was loved by many and his memory will always live on. His spirit free in the arms of Jesus, a new life without pain and illness.
