“ Bill Hayes represented to me all the best traits of his his generation, which has been coined the "greatest generation." He was a man who stepped up to the challenges in his life with wit, determination, and perserverance. He loved his wife and his family. Living accross the street from him it seemed he was person who had more friends than he could count because he was a good friend to all who engaged him. Seeing him kid with his buddies when he came hom from golf was wonderful. Bill will be missed by all who knew him.

“ Dear Lynn and family. I had the pleasure and knowing and working with Bill for several years at Standard Federal. He always wore a cheerful smile, had a quick and humorous wit, and was a wonderful guy in every respect. I had the pleasure of sharing the joy of golf with him on several occasions at Orchard Lake CC. He was a gentleman who was respected by all and will be missed. God Bless you and your family. Warm Regards, Rick

“ I am going to have such a big space in my life that is empty.....I am so grateful to have had him for all these years. He has guided me both in business and personally and taught me to laugh. His pranks, his joy, his incredible love for us will never be gone...
