“ My good buddy who was as close as a brother to me for over 20 years. The ringing in my ear when he would call out my name in his raspy voice always put a smile on my face. My deepest sympathy to his family who I hold as close as my own. May you find some way to get threw these sad times.

“ May God bless you and the Johnson's family in this time of sorrow. Bill was a great person to talk to, be with and just while in his presents. He always had something nice to say while we were there visiting. Watching the Piston's, Loins, Tigers, and or the Michigan football games. There will be an empty chair at the holiday table this year, but it will be filled with Bill's loving memories. Bill will be truly missed. Patti and mine thoughts and prayers are with you all during this times of need. Semper Fi!
