“ A wonderful father and a dear friend to many, Bill will be greatly missed. Our hearts go out to the entire Kehoe family, especially Brian. I know how deeply Brian loved his father, doing the loving things a caring son would do for a man that meant so much to him. Knowing one was loved doesn't ease the pain but at the end of the day, it is the love one shared that will always be remembered.

“ From the first time we met at Ferris in the 1962/63 school year when that Spring you talked me into going to Prudenville during final exams (after that I was put on academic probation and you joined the navy to last Saturday we have been good friends. Through school, our first jobs, romances and marriage, kids, our golf games and now to the final chapter of your life

Thanks Bill for all of the great memories I will always cherish your friendship

Rest in Peace my friend
