

William McKinley Smith

October 11, 1935 - January 15, 2018

Smith, William "Mac" Age 82. January 15, 2018.

Beloved husband of Wendy. Loving father of Daniel, Kelley Milner, Justin, and Marisa (Tony) Reisdorf. Proud grandfather of Ryan, Jason, Adam, Brittany, Brandon, Addison, Nathan and great grandfather of Tucker. Dear son of the late Stanley and Lucy. Brother-in-law of Debby (Bruce) Meek, Charlie (Yvette) Holloway and the late Michael Holloway. Mac was an enthusiastic sports fan, especially fond of hockey and watching the Detroit Red Wings. He also was an avid fan of the Detroit Tigers and Detroit Lions. At the age of 17 he enlisted in the Army and proudly served his country during the Korean War.

Throughout the adversities in his life, he always had a positive attitude and kind word for everyone. He was a true inspiration to all who knew him. There will be a memorial gathering to honor his life on Friday from 2-8 pm at the Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home, 705 W. 11 Mile Rd. (4 blks E. of Woodward), Royal Oak. Memorial contributions to Arthritis Foundation or American Lung Association are appreciated. Share your memories at www.sullivanfuneraldirectors.com.

“ Thanks again to everyone who shared here. It was also a great day for his memorial. So many people came that we hadn't seen in a long time. I compared it to a party that every side came to, family, friends, co-workers, and loved-ones so dear to us. It was an awesome day to celebrate my dad's life. The air was filled with both joy, and sadness. But I will fondly remember it all. I truly love you all for making yesterday very special to my family.

Mac's proud & loving son,

Justin

“ I will never forget Mac. He was the kindest person to know. Always smiling. Always there for you if he could be. Never a bad word about anyone. Always considered him my brother in law. Great husband father, grandfather. Always had great times when around him. Love you Mac Val

“ The pain is gone dad, it's ok for you to go. We love you. We will hang on here without you, though it will be hard, because you have been such an intricate part of our lives. You have touched so many people with your kindness and gentle smile. You took me on when I was 6 years old, becoming my dad, and believe me when I say, that no other could ever be you, replace you, or come close to being the man that came into my life 38 years ago. I hope I can live up to the way you carried yourself, your thoughtfulness, and how everyone else came first before yourself. I lost my daddy today. Please everyone, say I love you to the people who matter as much as you can. I held his hand, and I know he knew I was there, and that he was loved.

Your loving son, Justin

“ Sharing in the sadness of the loss of Uncle Mac. My prayers to Wendy, Dan, Kelley, Justin, Marisa, all the grandchildren and great grandchild. He was always one of my favorites. So much that in third grade when we had to pick a U.S. President to write about and present, guess who I picked? Yes, William McKinley, the 25th President of our country. And thank you, Uncle Mac, for serving our country. May you rest in peace and may the loved ones left behind be comforted by fond memories that will last lifetimes.
