“ i would like to offer my condolences to the family on their loss. I had the pleasure to meet Bill through business, we had the opportunity to spend time together golfing as well as enjoying a beverage with a good cigar and lengthy conversations which included his excitement for family and financial investments. Bill was a charismatic good man i enjoyed the short time we spent together. Bill you will be missed.

“ It's always hard to find the right words to say and hard to express just how much someone meant to you. Uncle Bill was an amazing man! Full of humor and was just an all around AWESOME person. Living in SC, it was difficult to visit often - but I knew he understood. I cherish the memories we've made and the laughs we've had. My prayers are with Bobby & Aunt Beth Anne. I love you both! No Goodbyes!! Until we meet again Uncle Bill.. watch over us from up above!

“ First and foremost are my deepest sympathy to Bill's family. I have only worked with Bill for 2 and a half years but I feel as though I have known him my whole life. Bill was blessed with the ability to make you feel welcome no matter what circumstance you may be in. I will miss Bill whom I have been privileged to work with and to have considered him my Friend. Watch over us Bill.

“ To my Brother A man that stepped up to be a man before his time of being a boy was done at the age of 15. My older brother was always on my case but always in a loving way to get me on track. He was the one I would go to for a reality check. We would in the beginning always but heads, the problem was we saw the same as it should be. Over the years we became close and I was called the "Mini Me". I could always call to vent my feelings and my plans. This I will miss the most as a part of my life. Being able to call up at anytime and go over issues or just talk. I was real young when my father left this world and my brother and I seemed to always but heads. But as we grew older we came closer and began to see things the same. We could laugh and joke about things all the time. My brother is the one I went to for my final decision or talk through. We could talk about things for hours and come to a final solution or path to go. I loved our time together and cherish each visit I had in Detroit. He will be so missed but he is with our Heavenly Father in heaven and I'm sure he's enjoying every minute of it. Maybe he's being the boy he should be! I know he's with all the family and having a grand reunion up there! He will be missed and someday you and I will meet this great man again at the feet of our Lord and Savior!

“ We feel honored and fortunate to have met Bill. People that have the ability to make you feel welcome and comfortable from the 1st introduction are rarely found in today's hustle and bustle working world. We spend too much time focused on where we need to get and often overlook the good thing we find along the way. Bill went out of his way and always made sure that you were involved and along for the ride. Difficult situations were made easier and the goods were always highlighted and praised. Bill you will be missed. Our condolences to your family and our thoughts and prayers are with them during this difficult time of loss. Your friends at Massiv Die Form

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. With your close family and friends, I wish you strength. Always with a smile and pleasant greeting, Bill will be remembered for his personal touch, logical thinking and willingness to accomplish his task. He made all of us better each day. He will be missed.

“ Beth Ann and Bobby, Steve and I are in shock at the news of Bill's passing. Bill was such a kind, generous, fun loving person. We felt blessed to call him friend for over 30 years, even though we lived so far away that we didn't get to see him often. But when we did, we so enjoyed the time laughing and reminiscing. He will be dearly missed. All our love, Steve and Mel
