“ Beautiful and graceful, varied and enchanting, small but approachable, butterflies lead you to the sunny side of life.” Wilma was very much like the butterflies she loved - she was always graceful and smiling and having a loving conversation of sunshine when our days were grey. She was a wonderful cousin and I am going to miss her, but I know I will see her again when the Lord calls me home. Oh what a day of rejoicing that will be with all of our family and friends.

“ Wilma and I were dear friends going back to the years when our kids were young and we worshipped together at the Highland Church of Christ . We had a wonderful weekend trip with our husbands to Toronto, meetings of the Women’s Associates of Rochester University And many more precious times. Wilma was a woman of grace and had a gift of friendship. We love her dearly.
