“ I met Yvonne in Dec. 2022, following a Christmas card that she had sent to Fr Edward Prus. I was so impressed upon her lengthy, heartfelt, beautifully handwritten cursive sentiments to him. I felt compelled to call her to update her upon Fr Prus's declining condition. We remained in contact either from phone calls or chatting outside on her front porch until her departure to heaven. My favorite memory was our visit together to Fr Patrick Gonyeau's farewell Mass and reception in Dec.2023. She was so happy to be out at a social event. She received from him abundant hugs ,prayers & God's Blessing. She relished in the compliments received from others on her beautiful rose colored top. It was a day of Happiness, Joy & Peace!
Until we Meet Again, May God Hold You in the Palm of his Hand!

“ I had just spoken to our dear Yvonne at the end of January. We chatted often and I was always afraid of the day when I would call and not get an answer. I had just put pictures in the mail to Yvonne to share December 29 wedding photos of our dear little Emma, now 27 and called last week to make sure she received them when the phone was not answered.... then I found this obituary and Yvonne had gone to join her beloved parents and sister. I swelled up in tears and sadness and hoping that she was not alone. Yvonne became a member of our family when she started babysitting for us when Emma was 3. She helped me raise Allison and Emma. She loved them and we loved her! She took great pride in being the family photographer at their first communions, loved taking them to the swim club and tanning there. She was devoted to St Benedict's and the girls used their money to buy raffle tickets to the lemon festival. Tom baked chess pies and she loved those. Yvonne joined us for Christmas brunch every year until we moved to Cleveland for work. Still we had our phone calls and graduation celebrations. Yvonne gave me endless support, encouragement and we shared laughter over our stories. I will miss you Yvonne. I am grateful for our time. Grateful that your suffering is over. You will forever be in our hearts. Thank you so much for your caring ways. We love you!.
