

Zara Marcelle Anderson (née Baird)

April 23, 1923 - December 28, 2017

Zara Marcelle Anderson (née Baird), born APRIL 23 1923 went home to glory Dec. 28, 2017 in Boynton Beach, Florida. She will be laid to rest next to her husband Kenneth Oliver Anderson at Clinton Grove Cemetery in Mt. Clemens, MI. She was predeceased by her husband Kenneth in 2001. The memorial service will be held at Shelby Bible Church, 47905 Hayes Rd, Shelby Township, Michigan, 48315, on Friday, January 26, 2018 at 11:00 a.m.

Zara met Kenny at a soda fountain in Detroit in 1940 and they were later married in 1941. After Kenny shipped off to North Africa to fight the Axis Powers in 1941, Zara went to work at Willow Run Airport in Romulus, Michigan, riveting airplanes. She was a real-life Rosy the Riveter. After the war, they lived with their children in Warren from 1945 to 1963. While Kenny worked for General Motors, Zara worked as a model, dancer and dance instructor. They also lived in Roseville before moving to Boca Raton and then, Delray Beach, Florida. They made yearly trips back to Michigan to visit family until their health made the trips impossible.

Zara is survived by her sister, Zella Conlon; her daughter, April Anderson-Burrell, April's husband, Kenneth Burrell; son, Grant Anderson and his wife, Catherine; grandson, Reverend Douglas Clark, his wife, Carmen and great-grandchildren, Cameron, Sara, Zachariah along with nephews, nieces and cousins who reside in Michigan. Zara will be sadly missed. May she DWELL

IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD FOREVER AND DANCE WITH THE ANGELS IN HEAVEN. Please share a memory with her family at www.SullivanFuneralDirectors.com
