“ I met Zoa a few times at Rae and Louie's. She was such a sweet, kind lady. And it was so obvious - she adored her family - her children, their spouses, her grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Zoa was so very proud of each and every one of them - and she so loved seeing everyone at family events. She is with the angels now - reunited with her beloved husband and two of her sons - and probably saying a rosary up in heaven.

RIP, Zoa Cubba.

“ Aunt Zoa was such a sweet kind caring person. I remember staying with her sometimes in the summer hanging out with “little”Zoa. Aunt Zoa made wonderful homemade bread and with beautiful tomatoes from her garden it was a real treat. I also remember that they had peacocks which I thought was so cool.My love and condolences to “little”Zoa and the rest of the Cubba family,I smile every time I think of her.
